

UUCB SILENT AUCTION CATALOG

As of Friday, December 1, 2017

Bidding will close on December 10, 2017, at 1:00 p.m.

To make additional donations, corrections, or absentee bids, email fundraising@uucb.org.

1 New Years' Eve Party for "Geezers"

Sunday, December 31, 7-10 pm

Celebrate having survived 2017! Come to the Hendersons' house in the Berkeley hills for fondue (cheese and chocolate), champagne, and conviviality. We'll ring in the New Year when it's midnight in New York, then head home to bed at a sensible hour.

Donated by: Lynne & Austin Henderson and friends

Location: Berkeley hills

10 spaces

Minimum bid: $25

2 Murder Mystery Dinner Party

Saturday, February 10, 6 pm

How to Host a Murder, Episode 7: "The Class of '54." You will be given a character to dress up as and play throughout the evening. (Time to be yourself will also be built in.)

Donated by: Luke Gottlieb and Rebecca Mitchell

Location: Point Richmond

8 spaces

Minimum bid: $40

3 iPhotography Class

Saturday, March 10, 9 am-noon

Take charge of your iPhone camera!

Carol Carlisle is an award-winning photographer and smart phone photography teacher. Join her for a fun and informative morning of photography including lessons and demonstration followed by a mini photo safari. Optional: Go out for a non-host pho lunch afterwards.

Donated by: Carol Carlisle

Location: Albany

8 spaces

Minimum bid: $25

4 Kensington History Walking Tour

Saturday, April 7, 10 am–noon

Join Ann for a walk in the southern portion of Kensington and learn about how the still unincorporated town got started in the 1910s and '20s. You'll see photos of the streetcar that came up Arlington and the "storybook style" business complex that occupied the space where the gas station is now. Learn about an early Kensington landowner, "Potato King" George Shima; architects William Yelland and Edwin Snyder; pharmacist/local historian Louis Stein, Robert Oppenheimer, and more. Starts at Ann's house on Ardmore with coffee/tea and scones.

Donated by: Ann Harlow
12 spaces
Minimum bid: $10

5 Any Port in a Storm!

Saturday, March 24, 7:30 pm

Enjoy tasting four different port wines along with four different desserts, while sharing stories of travel adventures (and misadventures) with other participants. Participants will vote on the best story, and the winner will receive a prize!

Donated by: Anne Wardell
Location: 6115 Rockridge Blvd. N, Oakland (510-420-8744)
12 spaces
Minimum bid: $30

6 An Intimate Albany Dinner Party

Dinner featuring fresh, seasonal ingredients, with wine, prepared in the new Albany kitchen of Beth Pollard and Ed Church. If four or five vegetarians want to bid on this together, a vegetarian (or vegan) menu is available.

Donated by: Beth Pollard
5 spaces
Minimum bid: $40

7 Brunch for Two at Inn Kensington

Gift certificate for a yummy brunch for two—check out their menu at innkensington.com.

Donated by: Inn Kensington
Minimum bid: $20

8 Ceramic Chalice by Laurel Eber

Donated by: Laurel Eber
Minimum bid: $50

9 Fresh Picked Blackberries

You'll have to wait a bit for these—they ripen around the end of May, but they are Anne's homegrown, organic blackberries, provided by the pint, fresh or frozen. Bid on one or more pints, minimum $6/pint.

Donated by: Anne Greenwood

10 spaces

Minimum bid: $6

10 Bread Man Ultra Breadmaker

Love the aroma of baking bread? Take this bread machine home, bake with it to your heart's content (or use it to make dough and bake in your oven), and if/when you get tired of it you can always re-donate it! Originally about $300.

Donated by: Fran Moulton

Minimum bid: $25
