

UUCB 2022 Ministerial Search Congregational Survey

Section 1: Introduction and What To Expect in the Survey

Welcome!

UUCB is searching for a new minister, and the Ministerial Search Committee invites your participation in the process by completing a Congregational Survey. The Congregational Survey is an important step in the ministerial search process. The data collected through this survey serve multiple purposes:

- to provide a census of our members and friends
- to help update our congregational story
- to inform our ministerial candidates about who we are and who we aspire to become
- to communicate what we are looking for in a new minister.

The survey consists of the following sections:

1. Introduction and What To Expect in the Survey (this section)
2. Introductory Questions
3. My Participation at UUCB
4. My Feelings about UUCB's Well-Being
5. My Vision for UUCB
6. Expectations of our New Minister
7. My Connection to UUCB
8. My Children (if applicable)
9. My Demographics

Notes on taking the survey online:

- The target date for completion of the Survey is Sunday, Sept. 25, 2022.
- The survey could take anywhere between 15 and 60 minutes to complete (average 40 minutes).
- The progress bar at the bottom will indicate your progress towards completion.
- If you have a Google account and log into it prior to taking the survey, Google will save your answers and you may return to the survey at a later time.
- If you do not have a Google account to log into, you must complete the survey in one browser session. If you close the browser before hitting the submit button, your responses will be lost.
- The survey is collected anonymously. Please be as honest as possible. Your Search Committee is ready and excited to hear what you have to say.
- All questions are voluntary; if a question makes you feel uncomfortable or doesn't seem to apply to you, feel free to skip it.
- Children are encouraged to complete the form on their own as they are willing and able. There is a section for parents and guardians to provide input on their child's participation as well.

Taking the survey by other means:

- Paper surveys will be available in the atrium after service every Sunday at the Ministerial Search Committee table.

- Paper surveys can be taken home to be returned to the office at UUCB or by mail to UUCB (c/o Ministerial Search Committee) at 1 Lawson Rd., Kensington, CA, 94707. Please make sure the survey is postmarked no later than Friday Sept 23, 2022.
- You may also call UUCB to request that a survey be mailed to you by calling the UUCB office (510-525-0302).

At the conclusion of data collection and analysis (late November), the Ministerial Search Committee will prepare and distribute a report of the survey and small group meeting findings. The raw data will be kept confidential, meaning the report will discuss findings in aggregate form. No survey answers or quotes will be attached to individuals, even if you are logged into your Google account.

If you have questions or concerns about the survey or the overall ministerial search, please contact the Ministerial Search Committee one or both co-conveners, Ladie Malek and Gregory Lemieux via the committee email address: msc@uucb.org.
