

Extend an Invitation into UUCB!

Here are Some Ideas

Inviting friends, neighbors and colleagues to UUCB Sunday services, events, lectures, and classes is one way that we can all work together to strengthen and grow our community. If everyone invited just one new person a year, we might add up to 60 additional members each year, above our natural growth, allowing us to deepen our service to each other and to the local and global communities and enrich our programs of worship and learning at UUCB.

Here are some ideas for ways in which you can share the gift of UUCB with those around you by inviting them to UUCB or by letting them know what you receive and how you serve by being a UUCB member.

- Hone your own UU "Elevator Speech" – Some Ideas
 - Our Unitarian tradition teaches that we all come from a common source. Our Universalist tradition teaches that we all share a common destiny. Contemporary Unitarian Universalism emphasizes that what comes between is what really matters.
 - One Light (Unitarianism) shines through many windows (Universalism), illuminating human minds and hearts in many different ways
